GHC NAMES DONNA CHILDRES DIRECTOR OF FINANCIAL AID

Georgia Highlands College announces the appointment of Donna Childres as director of financial aid. Childres comes to the position from South Georgia Technical College in Americus, where she served in several positions, including financial aid assistant, director of admissions, and most recently, director of financial aid. She also worked in the accounting offices of C-E Mineral/MULCOA in Andersonville.

She earned her bachelor's degree in business administration from Georgia Southwestern College in Americus.

Georgia Highlands College is a two-year, associate degree-granting unit of the University System of Georgia, serving 4,000 students on six teaching sites in Rome, Cartersville, Acworth, Marietta and Carrollton.
