

- (b) Establish a Cooperative Degree Oversight Committee composed of four representatives from each of the two institutions to provide oversight for the cooperative program. Members of the committee will be named by the presidents of respective institutions. The Cooperative Degree Oversight Committee will (1) meet quarterly to review the program and recommend any changes or additional actions to the presidents of the institutions for consideration; (2) include in its review an evaluation of each institution's programs for advising and counseling students in the cooperative program; and (3) conduct needs assessment and make recommendations regarding new program areas;
- (c) Provide program review groups made up of representatives from both institutions who will examine, on a course-by-course basis, the components of each degree program, validate faculty credentials, and maintain an ongoing program review cycle. As appropriate these groups may involve area field practitioners and representatives from other accredited institutions in the program review process;
- (d) Each institution provides learning resources appropriate to their respective portion of the degree program.
